JACOB A. RIIS, FRIEND OF THE PRESIDENT.

A novel suggestion lately made by Mr. Riis, to elect Theodore Roosevelt mayor of New York after the presidential term is over, brings again to mind Riis' devotion to Roosevelt, whose life he has already written. Jacob August Riis was born in Denmark in 1849. He was educated and married in his native land, after which he came to New York. He started as a reporter and is the author of a number of notable books, including "How the Other Half Lives."

IMMIGRATION SCHEMES

WHAT INVESTIGATOR FOUND IN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

HE RECOMMENDS AMERICAN SE-CRET SERVICE THAT WILL KEEP WATCH IN FOR-EIGN PORTS.

Washington, March 7.—In response to the Suius resolution passed by the House, Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor sent to the House the report of Special Immigrant Inspector Marcus Braun, which deals at great length with the character of the immigrants coming to this country and the attitude of the European Governments upon the matter.

Braun declares that he has incontro-vertible evidence that while the number of aliens shipped to this country who are legally inadmissible due to disease is diminishing, immigrants inadmissible for other reasons are constantly brought into the country in large numbers "by the concerted action of some European Governments and steamship agencies, by bankers and schemers of all sorts."

Braun declares that while these governments have laws ostensibly intended to restrict immigration, instead of doing so they actually encourage it by keeping alive "the patriotic spirit of the fatherland in the minds of these colonists by representing that unless they adhere to the principles of home patriotism their governments would leave them without protection in "harbaric America."

This is especially true, Braun says, in Italy and Hungary. He asserts that these countries regard the United States in the attitude of adjunct or colonies of their own and by their instructions and teachings to immigrants benefit accrues to the home government to the detriment of this country.
He cites the fact that $50,000,000 was sent last year from the United States to Austria-Hungary alone from these immigrants.

"Not a single promise which the new Hungarian immigrant law guaranteed has been kept," Braun says. "I experienced the bewildering spectacle of hundreds upon hundreds of agents licensed by the Hungarian Government carrying on and conducting an almost unheard of campaign to get immigrants, in direct and open violation of the laws."

These laws, Braun says, are nothing but a farce and systematic violation is licensed and privileged by the Hungarian Government. Braun narrates at length his interviews with Hungarian officials and quotes Premier Tisza as saying that bills introduced in Congress tending to restrict immigration are regarded as unfriendly acts toward the Government of Hungary.

Braun states that in order to discourage Hungarians from becoming American citizens, the precaution is taken to advocate the establishment in the United States of Hungarian homes, schools, churches and institutions, the intention of which is to avert "the terrible danger" of Hungarians becoming naturalized.

Braun then takes up immigration from Turkey, Asia Minor and Syria.
Speaking of the Armenians, he says that they have invented a scheme whereby they can stay in Turkey and at the same time defy Turkish laws.
This scheme consists of a large number of Armenians emigrating to the United States and as soon as they have earned sufficient money for their need they return supplied with American citizenship papers and are continually conspiring against the Turkish Government under the protection of American citizenship.

The same is true in Syria and Palestine. In this connection Braun quotes from the Governor of Mount Lebanon, saying, "If this constant travel from Syria to and from the United States does not cease soon, the United States had better annex the province of Lebanon, as at the present there are more American citizens there than Turkish citizens."

In Jerusalem alone Braun found more than 3,000 American citizens. He cites a number of instances of the fraud which these people practice and declares that 99 per cent of them speak not a word of English and most of them did not know the street or the city in which they claimed to have resided in the United States.

Regarding immigration from Italy, Braun says that an Italian subject may leave that country for any place on the globe except the United States without a passport. He is required to pay a fee of eight lire for a passport to the United States and from this the Government derives the revenue. He further declares, upon the statement of bankers and steamship agents, that the amount annually received in Italy from Italians in this country averages $1 a day for every Italian in this country.

It is openly stated, he says, in the Export Review, a semi-official organ of the Austrian Government, that three-fourths of the immigrants leaving that country for the United States come under contract, which adds:

"God forbid that the American Government should read this."
There is a tendency on the part of the Austrian Government, Braun says, similar to that of the Government of Hungary, to keep a strong watch over their people in America, and every effort is directed toward two objective points, namely, to send us all the emigrants they possibly can for a temporary sojourn here to earn money with which to enrich the land of their nativity upon their return, and secondly, to prevent such immigrants from becoming American citizens.

Braun has a word of commendation for the Russian Jew. Once he becomes a resident of this country, Braun says, the Russian Jew stays, and his children become among the most patriotic and thrifty of our citizenship.

Based upon his investigation, Braun makes a series of recommendations:

"That the United States maintain abroad a secret surveillance of undesirable immigration."
"That a statute be enacted requiring aliens to produce at landing a certificate of origin from the nearest United States Consul, to be issued only in the event that satisfactory information has come to the Consul respecting the alien from secret service officials."

"That a bond be required of not less than $25,000 from persons engaged in the United States in the sale of steamship tickets, forwarding money, contracting labor, etc., for faithful and conscientious performance of obligations and contracts."

"That a law be enacted making it a criminal offense for any resident agent of the company to travel abroad for purposes of inducing immigration for temporary or permanent stay, but exempting relatives."

"That the naturalization laws be amended to require a longer period of residence before citizenship is granted."

HILLO PINEAPPLE SCHEME PROMOTED BY ANDREWS

Hilo, March 27.—The business men of Hilo and L. A. Andrews have decided upon a plan of organization of the company to engage in canning pineapples at Hilo. Owing to objections being raised by some of the business men to some of the details of the plan as originally proposed, Mr. Andrews has offered the following amended proposition which the leading business men concerned state their approval of and which will be carried into effect. Organization will be perfected at an early date.

The modifications consist mainly in reducing the capitalization from $100,- 000 to $25,000, and in eliminating the ownership of land and growing of pineapples from the business of the company. This latter business will be carried on by individuals, and small companies which are already forming.

The capital stock of the company will be $25,000, with the authority to increase to any amount desired, represented by 2500 shares, of the par value of $10 each.

Six hundred and twenty-five shares are to be reserved as treasury stock; 1875 shares, or 75 per cent, as required by law will be issued immediately, of which 175 shares will be issued as paid-up stock for expenses incurred and services rendered in organization, leaving 1700 shares on which will be realized $17,000 cash. As stated by Mr. Andrews, the object of the company is:

It is proposed to organize this joint stock company for the purpose of furnishing a market for the fruit produced by individuals.

The primary object is to build and establish in Hilo, Hawaii, a cannery for pineapples produced by individual growers and to buy, can or otherwise preserve and market, pineapples.

This company may have as a secondary object, the purchase of other fruits that may be produced on Hawaii, such as bananas, guavas, grapes, oranges, lemons, berries, etc.; also vegetables and other products, such as taro, ginger, peppers, etc., and preserve or manufacture them into jelly, jam, candied fruit, dried fruit, vinegar, wine, alcohol, brandy, and such other manufactured articles as are marketable.

The profits of a business of this character depend much on the volume of the business done, and there is every reason to believe that once established, this business will rapidly grow to very large proportions, yielding good returns to the investors.

It is estimated that there are enough pineapples now growing in Hilo and vicinity to furnish from 300,000 to 500,- 000 plants during the next few months, most of which will yield fruit for the 1906 pack. Of course, many of the pineapples produced will be sent to the fresh fruit market, and the cannery may have enough fruit to yield large returns on the first year's pack, but there is no reason why there should not be a pack of 20,000 cases in 1908.— Tribune.

CO. D ALL RIGHT

Hilo, March 27.—The annual inspection of Company D was held at the Armory Thursday night by Major R.
C. Van Vleet, U. S. A. The company made a fine appearance and at the conclusion of the drill the major congratulated Captain Fetter, complimenting the company on the showing made.
Two men only of the total enrollment were absent—one sick, and the other in attendance counted for a great deal, as much importance is attached to this at an inspection. The condition of the equipment was found to be excellent and was specially complimented, even the sharp eyes of the major, which saw everything with surprising readiness, failing to detect anything more serious than a stopper missing from a canteen or a spoon kept back in a haversack.

The inspection proper was made with the company in heavy marching order and fully accoutred. The inspection was followed by a drill. The men were put through the various military evolutions by Captain Fetter, Major Van Vleet and Lieutenants Ludloff and Beers, in which a proficiency was shown that was most creditable to all concerned. On account of recent changes in the tactics which the company had had no opportunity to familialize itself with, some of the evolutions were not performed in accordance with the latest tactics; otherwise the movements were very well done.

Great credit is due Captain Fetter for the high standard which the company has reached in military proficiency.

The band was present and enlivened the occasion, and the inspection was witnessed by a number of spectators.
After the drill was over the members of the company enjoyed refreshments in the company room.—Tribune.

HYLO LAMPS

TURN DOWN AT WILL.

Turns down to one or sixteen candle power.
Users of ordinary electric lamps have often, perforce, to use 16-candle power when 1-candle power would suffice. This means that the lamp wastes you money and more money in the course of a year than you suppose.

HYLO LAMPS on the other hand, save you money, for they enable you to turn your light down from 16-c.p. to 1 c.p. at will.
